

Bogusław Kułakowski is a graduate of Maria Curie-Skłodowska University (Poland) with a Master degree in Law. He also holds a Master degree in Business Administration from Le Moyne College in Syracuse N.Y. (USA) and a Master degree in Business Telecommunications from the Technical University of Delft (the Netherlands).

From November 1st 2010 he holds the position of Director Business Development and Country Manager Poland for Qualcomm Inc, one of the top HiTech US based corporations.

Prior to joining Qualcomm, Bogusław Kułakowski worked on a various positions in ICT industry. From September 1999 to March 2005 he was the Chairman of the Management Board and CEO of Polska Telefonia Cyfrowa Sp. z o.o. ("PTC"), Poland's leading mobile telephony operator serving customers under Era, Tak-Tak and Heyah brands. He joined PTC in 1996 on its launch as a Director of Customer Care and later became the Chief Strategist in charge of corporate strategy and new products development.

In May 2005 he has joined ITI Holding as a Management Board Member with the responsibilities as a CTO in charge of R&D as well. He was in charge of a new satellite DTH platform "N" creation.

Since May 2007 till October 2010 Boguslaw Kulakowski was working as an independent consultant with his own consulting company, having an ITC projects in Poland, Scandinavia, UK, Holland, Germany and Austria.

He was a Supervisory and Advisory Board Member of many ICT companies, like Onet.pl, Dell Europe, Linx Holland, Payback AG, Bonnier BP, etc. For his outstanding achievements in telecommunications, he was granted by the President of the Republic of Poland with Gold Cross of Merit.